

Dear FCC people,
We would like to complain about Sinclair's decision to air a negative film on prime time just before the elections. The company has a responsibility to its share holders and to the public to act in a democratic manner. Too much power is given to media companies instead of working for a democratic process. We need more local stations instead of solidifying power into too few hands.
We hope you will reprimand Sinclair.
Sincerely, Jim and Eva Demetro